

Receipts/Forms from Holding the Door Open Donations

FY July 1, 2020 – Year End, 2021

With Covid-19 as a major consideration in 2020 and 2021, donations made on behalf of the Holding the Door Open program focused more on those organizations helping to feed and house people. Particularly in 2021, fewer donations were made, but the amount of each donation was increased.

Hi Clarissa,

Thank you for your donation of $25.00 to the Native American Heritage Association. We help Native Americans on the Reservations of South Dakota with food, clothing, heating assistance and basic life necessities. Your donation will help NAHA fulfill those needs.

[REDACTED]

We are also a 4-star charity with Charity Navigator and just received our 16th 4-star rating and 97% of our budget goes towards our program services. You may visit www.charitynavigator.org for more information on our organization's 4-star rating.

We greatly appreciate your support and all you do for the Native Americans we serve.

Thank you,

Native American Heritage Association

DOWNTOWN WOMEN'S CENTER

Every woman housed

Dear Clarissa:

Thank you for your contribution of $25.87 in support of the Downtown Women's Center. Your gift provides much needed services, health, and safety to women experiencing homelessness during the COVID-19 social distancing period.

Here are your donation details for your records:

Amount: $25.87

Date: 12/21/2020

Because of you, a woman can enjoy a hot meal, shower, and a safe place to rest in the heart of Skid Row. She can connect with housing, jobs, healthcare, and other resources. And she has a platform to share her story and create real, lasting change.

Your generosity is at the heart of all we do. Please contact me at (213) 680-0600 with questions, or to learn more about the impact of your support. And keep up with all the ways you're changing women's lives at DowntownWomensCenter.org.

Thank you again for your generous contribution. I'm so glad you're part of the solution to ending homelessness for women in Los Angeles.

With gratitude,

Amy Turk, LCSW
Chief Executive Officer

Thank you for donating to DWC

Your support helps ensure this year of learning isn't lost.

TEACHFORAMERICA

Clarissa, thank you for your support!

Some are calling this a year of lost learning. Not us. And not you.

Right now, your gift is supporting teachers working hard every day to keep kids engaged and learning. With your generosity, they can continue doing the essential work of creating engaging, transformative, and equitable learning spaces for our students, no matter where they are.

Please visit www.teachforamerica.org to learn more about the progress that your support makes possible every day. If you have questions, contact us anytime at donations@teachforamerica.org or 212-279-2080, ext. 84483.
